A “tool call” is two decisions in a trench coat: which tool (a choice among a fixed list) and what arguments (an extraction). Your code, not the model, does the acting.