KEY IDEA	One sentence worth remembering a year from now. The thick bar marks it.
KEEP THESE	At the end of each chapter: that chapter's key ideas, in one list.
TRY IT	Code you can run. The chapter's lab notebook has the full version.
SET THE THRESHOLD	A small decision to make yourself, with costs. The answer follows in brackets.
WHERE THIS BREAKS	The honest limits of what the chapter just showed.
GOING DEEPER	Optional maths. Skip it and nothing later depends on it.
WHY NOT ...?	A side box that answers the obvious objection in a few lines.
SYNTHETIC	Every Jev number comes from a mock model, and says so.
